- Happy Festivus

All of these are end of darkness celebrations that look forward to the returning of the light.

Then there's the biggest of all darkness transitions—the one the whole calendar flip is based on...

Happy New Year

Festivus the holiday for the rest of us:

Celebrated December 23rd each year.

The Meal: Whatever you want

During the last few days in December when Festivus takes place, families and friends get together to share something called "the Airing of Grievances". During this time, we share the many ways in which our family and friends have disappointed us over the past year.
